

Lesson 1 Quick Review

Which of the following describes Informative Writing?

- A.  Writing that informs the reader about the writer's personal experience.
- B.  Writing that increases the readers' knowledge and understanding about a topic.
- C.  Writing that informs the reader about an opinion.

Classification is an organizational structure that places information into categories.

- True
- False

Other types of organizational structures include compare/contrast, sequence, and problem/solution.

- True
- False

Answers: B, True, True

Lesson 2 Quick Review

Facts, definitions, and details are useful in developing a topic.

- True
- False

Which of the following is NOT a good source for informative writing?

- A.  Speaking with experts
- B.  The internet
- C.  A fiction movie

It is important to use your own words to avoid plagiarism.

- True
- False

Answers: True, C, True

3rd Grade

Informative: Classification

Lesson 3 Quick Review

A typical paragraph in an informative paper has a topic sentence and supporting details

- True
- False

Creating an outline helps put thoughts in logical order.

- True
- False

Without supporting details, the reader might wonder if the information is true.

- True
- False

Answers: True, True, True

Lesson 4 Quick Review

The  engages the reader with a thought-provoking question.

The  engages the reader with an interesting conversation.

The  engages the reader with a visual image.

Dialogue Strategy

Question Strategy

Description Strategy

Answers: Question Strategy, Dialogue Strategy, DescriptionStrategy

Lesson 5 Quick Review

Where should your engaging introduction be?

- A.  The beginning
- B.  The middle
- C.  The end

A rough draft doesn't have to be perfect; it can be revised later.

- True
- False

An outline is a guide for the whole paper.

- True
- False

3rd Grade

Informative: Classification

Answers: A, True, True

Lesson 6 Quick Review ✕

is a way to write a conclusion.

is the last paragraph that brings the writing to an end.

is one of the Six Traits that deals with "conclusion"?

Organization

Restating the topic

Conclusion

Answers: Restating the Topic, Conclusion, Organization

Lesson 7 Quick Review

What is important to consider when reviewing your conclusion?

- A.  Whether you have enough details
- B.  Whether the paragraph is long enough
- C.  Whether it communicates your final thoughts

When should writers use a definition?

- A.  To show that they know how to use a dictionary
- B.  To explain a word that is not commonly understood
- C.  To help remember the meaning of a word

Including details can provide support to a thought.

- True
- False

Answers: C, B, True

3rd Grade

Informative: Classification

Lesson 8 Quick Review

is the person or persons who you expect to read your writing.

are words that relate to a subject area such as science.

is useful in school or professional settings.

Discipline-specific language

Audience

Academic language

Answers: Audience, Discipline-specific Language, Academic Language

Lesson 9 Quick Review

Complete the sentences with terms listed below.

are words or phrases that help tie ideas together.

helps avoid using the same words to begin sentences.

helps the flow of writing from one sentence to another.

Varied sentence beginnings

Sentence Fluency

Transitions

Answers: Transitions, Varied Sentence Beginnings, Sentence Fluency

Lesson 10 Quick Review

Which best describes the purpose of using a graph or illustration?

- A.  It gives the writer a break from writing.
- B.  It can help the reader understand a topic.
- C.  It shows the teacher that you know how to use the Internet.

Which type of picture or graph is best to use?

- A.  Any one that the writer likes to look at
- B.  One that will help make the information more clear or interesting
- C.  One that the reader has seen before

It is important to cite the source when using another person's graph or illustration.

- True
- False

Answers: B, B, True

3rd Grade

Informative: Classification

Lesson 11 Quick Review

Which of the following happens during revision?

- A.  Changing the content
- B.  Outlining the information
- C.  Fixing spelling errors

Editing focuses on the conventions of writing.

- True
- False

Which applies to revision?

- A.  Correcting grammar and punctuation
- B.  Taking time to consider if the writing is clear
- C.  The process that happens after editing

Answers: A, True, B

Lesson 12 Quick Review

Which does NOT apply to editing?

- A.  Changing the content
- B.  Changing the punctuation
- C.  Correcting spelling errors

Which of the following involves rethinking how to write something?

- A.  Editing
- B.  Summarizing
- C.  Revising

It can be helpful to use an Editing Checklist and work with a partner to edit a paper.

- True
- False

Answers: A, C, True

3rd Grade
Informative: Classification

Lesson 13 Quick Review

Which of the following describes listing the sources used to write an essay?

- A.  Biography
- B.  Sourceography
- C.  Bibliography

Which source would NOT be required in a bibliography?

- A.  Information from a website
- B.  Information from an article
- C.  Information from the writer's mind

You would find a bibliography at the end of an essay.

- True
- False

Answers: C, C, True